MATTHEW SMYTHE

A high performing sales agent on the Lower North Shore, Matthew Smythe has sold over $1.5 billion worth of local property and has personally set records in Cremorne Point, Mosman, McMahons Point, Kirribilli and Cammeray.

With the addition of being a Principal of a trusted boutique real estate group, Matthew's commitment and dedication to ensure all clients achieve their real estate goals is stronger than ever.

An approachable and strong communicator, Matthew thrives on the competitive nature of real estate, the enjoyment of putting deals together and building longstanding client relationships. With a strong team behind Matthew, they are all able to leverage off each other's strengths and experience, ensuring that every transaction is a positive and highly successful one.

Combining the superior marketing of Belle Property and Matthew's understanding of the local market, outstanding results are regularly achieved for his vendors. Matthew was recognised at the Real Estate Institute Awards for Excellence in Auction Marketing, and has been ranked in the Top 100 Agents in Australia at the REB Awards every year from 2017 – 2022.

A keen ocean swimmer and tragic golfer, Matthew lives on the Lower North Shore with his wife and three children.
